Message from Chief Executive

Pakistan was passing through the time of political change during this programmatic and financial year (July 2018-June 2019) of the organization. AwazCDS-Pakistan and its partner organizations under Ujala, Umang and SDGs related programs influenced the mainstream and regional political parties to set their political parties manifestoes considering the pro-people agendas related to education, health, socio-economic development and political empowerment of people especially women, girls and youth. This is pertinent to mention that our advocacy efforts worked well and we were able to bring pro-people agendas like girls right to quality secondary schools, better financing for SDGs and youth friendly health services as well as education related to reproductive health & rights as the priority indicators in their political manifestoes. New political party Pakistan Tehrik-e-Insaf (PTI) took over the reign in the country after 22 years of their struggles in politics. PTI has created much hopes in young people for change.

AwazCDS-Pakistan also went through the gigantic change after 22 years of its existence. 2018 was the year of change for AwazCDS-Pakistan as the organization had shifted its national secretariat from Multan to Islamabad (capital territory), closed all its field offices from across the country and started the strategic revision of its work. 5th Five Years Strategic Business Plan (2018-2022) was prepared and approved for new ventures through partner organizations only instead of direct implementation in the communities. It was also envisaged that AwazCDS-Pakistan would not work on services delivery where as its focus would remain at evidence generation, policy reforms and advocacy for creating rightful spaces and choices of life for women girls and young people. Most of our investments and energies were being utilized for strengthening civil society voices and institutions to ensure better governance and accountability processes as well as strengthening public systems and structures through informed mobilization and advocacy efforts across the country.

As our national secretariat settled in the federal capital, we got quick and frequent access to Parliamentarians and influential policy makers as well as media houses therefore most of our work under Ujala, Umang and sustainable development projects have brought better results as compared to previous years.

The report in hand shares the details of our work in partnerships with vibrant CSOs from across the country. The partners are carefully selected through a rigorous due diligence process. We are thankful to all of them for their wonder work despite difficult circumstances due to rising poverty, inequalities and new regulatory frameworks towards the civic spaces and working on NGOs in the country.

We must also acknowledge the regular support of our funding partners in our development endeavors as without their generous financial support AwazCDS-Pakistan and its partners might not have been able to reach out to millions of marginalized people and communities in this country.

With immense regards

Zia ur Rehman

Founder and Chief Executive

3.1.3 Case Study as an Impact of Ujala

Aasia is a young girl of 15 years age from Kili Zaro Chah Noshki Balochistan. She is Baloch by cast and belongs to Mengal Tribe. Aasia's father Ameer Khan has five children (2 daughters and 3 sons) and he has fixed his daughter's Aasia marriage at the age of 15 years. As per the custom, the elder brother and sister of Aasia were also married at an early age. Ameer Khan has fixed the marriage of Aasia with Muhammad Farooq and he was a young boy of 18 years age. Muhammad Farooq has not received any formal education, he was a labor and based in Taftan City near Iran border. Aasia was enrolled in a school for basic education and she was a student of class 8th. However as soon as Ameer Khan has fixed her marriage he restricted Aasia from attending school with an announcement that in a few days her marriage ceremony is going to take place so now there is no need of going to school and continuing studies.

Azat Foundation/Ujala partner came to know about it from the community and therefore they had a meeting with the father of Aasia. Initially it seems not an easy task to talk to a Baloch regarding the cultural practice of early age marriage as they have their values and traditions which are being followed from centuries and violation of these traditions is considered as an offense. The same was the case with Aasia's father as he presented several arguments to justify his decision.

Azat Foundation team shared with him that early age marriages creates many problems for the girls in their future life as they are incapable of handling responsibilities of married life, they face many health problems and complications in teenage pregnancy. The general believe of the community to marry the girl immediately after she gets her first menstrual cycle was defended by facilitator by letting them know about the changes in development in human body, how the media, food and other factors are contribute in making a youngster reach the puberty age even before his physical and mental growth.

The importance of education for girls was highlighted to convince Ameer Khan. Finally, he realized the facts and appreciated the efforts of Azat Foundation for having discussion with him on this important issue. He decided to postpone the marriage of Aasia until she turns to 18 years and he allowed his daughter for continuing her studies.

5. Audit report 2018-2019

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the accounting and reporting standards as applicable in Pakistan and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Foundation's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Foundation or to cease operations, or has a realistic alternative to do so.

The Board of directors is responsible for overseeing the Foundation's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs as applicable in Pakistan will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs as applicable in Pakistan, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Foundation's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Foundation's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Foundation to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Call for Girls' Education Task Force to enroll 12m out of schoolgirls

STAFF REPORTER

To mark the first 100 days of the new Pakistan government, education activists joined forces to call for the urgent convening of a national Girls' Education Task Force. Ms. Marriyum Amjad of Awaz CDS shared, "The most alarming fact notes that the net enrolment rate for girls stands at 72% at primary level; this comes down to 45% at middle school level and further drops to 27% at secondary level.

This shows that while Pakistan has made strides in the realm of primary education for girls, greater attention and a coherent national policy is required to bridge the gender gap at secondary and higher secondary levels". The girl's education fact sheets bring together key data from various government departments and development organizations, presenting an overview of the situation at both a national and provincial level.

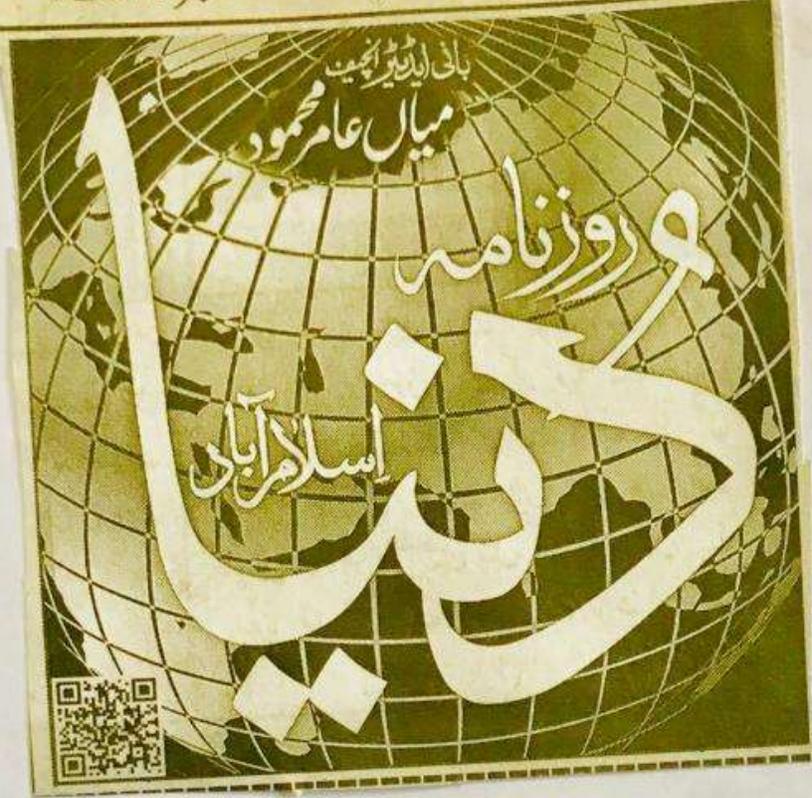

They include key policy recommendations unique to each province. As a first step to address this glaring concern, Pakistan Coalition for Education (PCE), Awaz Foundation Pakistan, Pakistan Youth Change Advocates (PYCA), Social Youth Council of Patriots (SYCOP) and Idara Baraye Taleem-o-Tariqi (IBT) are urging the federal and provincial governments to form a Girls Education Task Force for devising a National Education Policy.

Ms. Areebah Shahid, Executive Director PYCA also praised the recent efforts of the Federal Minister for Education, Mr. Shafqat Mehmood for responding to a long-awaited request of the civil society to call an inter-provincial meeting of the education ministers to chalk out key priority areas for education reforms in the country. Launching a series of fact sheets to draw attention to the state of girls' education, the organizations including Pakistan Coalition for Education (PCE), Awaz Foundation Pakistan, Pakistan Youth Change Advocates (PYCA), Social Youth Council of Patriots (SYCOP), and Idara Baraye Taleem-o-Taraqi (IBT) called on the new government to make girls' education a specific priority as part of its new National Education Plan.

Additionally, the civil society organizations are also demanding that the national spending on education be increased to 4-6% of the GDP (with an annual increase of 1%); benchmark indicators and minimum quality standards for education should be defined and followed across the country; greater infrastructural investment should be made for girls' higher secondary schools and the scope of Article 25-A of the Constitution of Pakistan (that pledges free and quality education for every child between 5 - 16 years) should be expanded to cover the first 12 years of education.
